Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Admiral Turner:

Thank you again for so generously sharing your time with the Supreme Court law clerks yesterday. Many of the law clerks have made it a point to tell me how impressed they were by you and by your proficiency and grasp of your duties after only a short time in the post. The luncheon was most enjoyable. We all know the demands on your time are great and your willingness to spend so much of it here, and to so frankly discuss your duties and your views is deeply appreciated.

Sincerely,

H. Robert Mayer
Special Assistant to the Chief Justice
